

I am very unhappy that G105 and Clear Channel Communications used the public airwaves to encourage the driving public to commit assault on cyclists.